INTRODUCING

Renata Consiglio is an experienced Systemic Coach & Constellations facilitator for women in service-based businesses that know they are capable of having a bigger impact through their work but feel stuck, overwhelmed, and unsure of the next right move.

Her signature experiences are Systemic Constellations where clients are expertly guided through an embodied and intuitive experience to visually represent the normally invisible dynamics that are keeping them small.

With over 25 years' experience in Human Resources and business consulting, Renata is able to practically apply her empathy, intuition, and systemic principles to guide Clients to uncover the root cause of why they find themselves stuck and gain the confidence and clarity needed to make change.

Renata lives on the Northern Beaches of Sydney, Australia running her business both online and in person whilst prioritising her young family and balanced lifestyle.

"I had the pleasure of working with Renata as a guest presenter at a value-add workshop for my clients. Renata is an absolute gem to work with, professional, friendly and flexible. The feedback from the participants who attended the workshop was; "that was incredible", "amazing", "so powerful", "transformative". Sandra Buckley, InSync Business Connections
